

An Invitation

What is The Tasmanian Peace Trust?

The TPT was established in November 1985, to support and develop initiatives during and after the International Year of Peace.

The Trust is concerned with peace issues at the personal, community, national and international levels.

The trust is a non-profit, legally constituted body operating under a Deed of Trust.

The Tasmanian Peace Trust is a nationally registered charity

Activities of The Tasmanian Peace Trust.

The TPT has two main activities:

1. THE ANNUAL PEACE TRUST LECTURE
2. THE TASMANIAN PEACE TRUST GRANTS PROGRAM.

Since 1991, the TPT has proudly presented the Annual Peace Trust lectures, featuring a wide range of stimulating and thought provoking speakers. The Lecture is held every springtime. A listing of all past lectures is in this brochure and the transcripts are available for sale from the Peace Trust. Copies of the Transcripts have been made available to the Tasmanian Library in Murray Street Hobart.

If you are planning an activity with a peace-related aim or theme and would like some financial assistance, either look out for advertisements in the Tasmanian papers in May and November or call Peter Jones on the number below. Applications forms are also available on the Tasmanian Peace Trust website.

THE TASMANIAN PEACE TRUST CAN HELP SUPPORT YOU

THE GRANTS PROGRAM

The TPT was established to provide grants for individuals and groups working to build peaceful communities, further human rights, resolve conflict and protect the environment.

Twice a year, in May and October, we invite individuals and groups to make submissions, to fund their peace-related activities and projects. So far, the Trust has given more than $60,000 in grants, funding for

- Establishment of Community Mediation service.
- Australian Disarmament Dialogue
- United Nations Seminars
- Domestic Violence Action Group
- Campaign Against War toys
- Attendance of senior students at annual United Nations Association Conferences.
- Production of a Peace Manual by school students.
- Primary School Aboriginal Culture Centre
- High school Australia-wide petition to world leaders.
- Support for newsletters and periodicals
- Subsidy for Peace Priorities newsletter.
- Support for Community Peace Groups.
- Funding for a peace poetry anthology.
- Participation in the International War Crimes tribunal in The Hague.
- Education on issues including East Timor, West Papua, land mines, prison reform etc.
